MARRAKESH

GUIDED TOUR

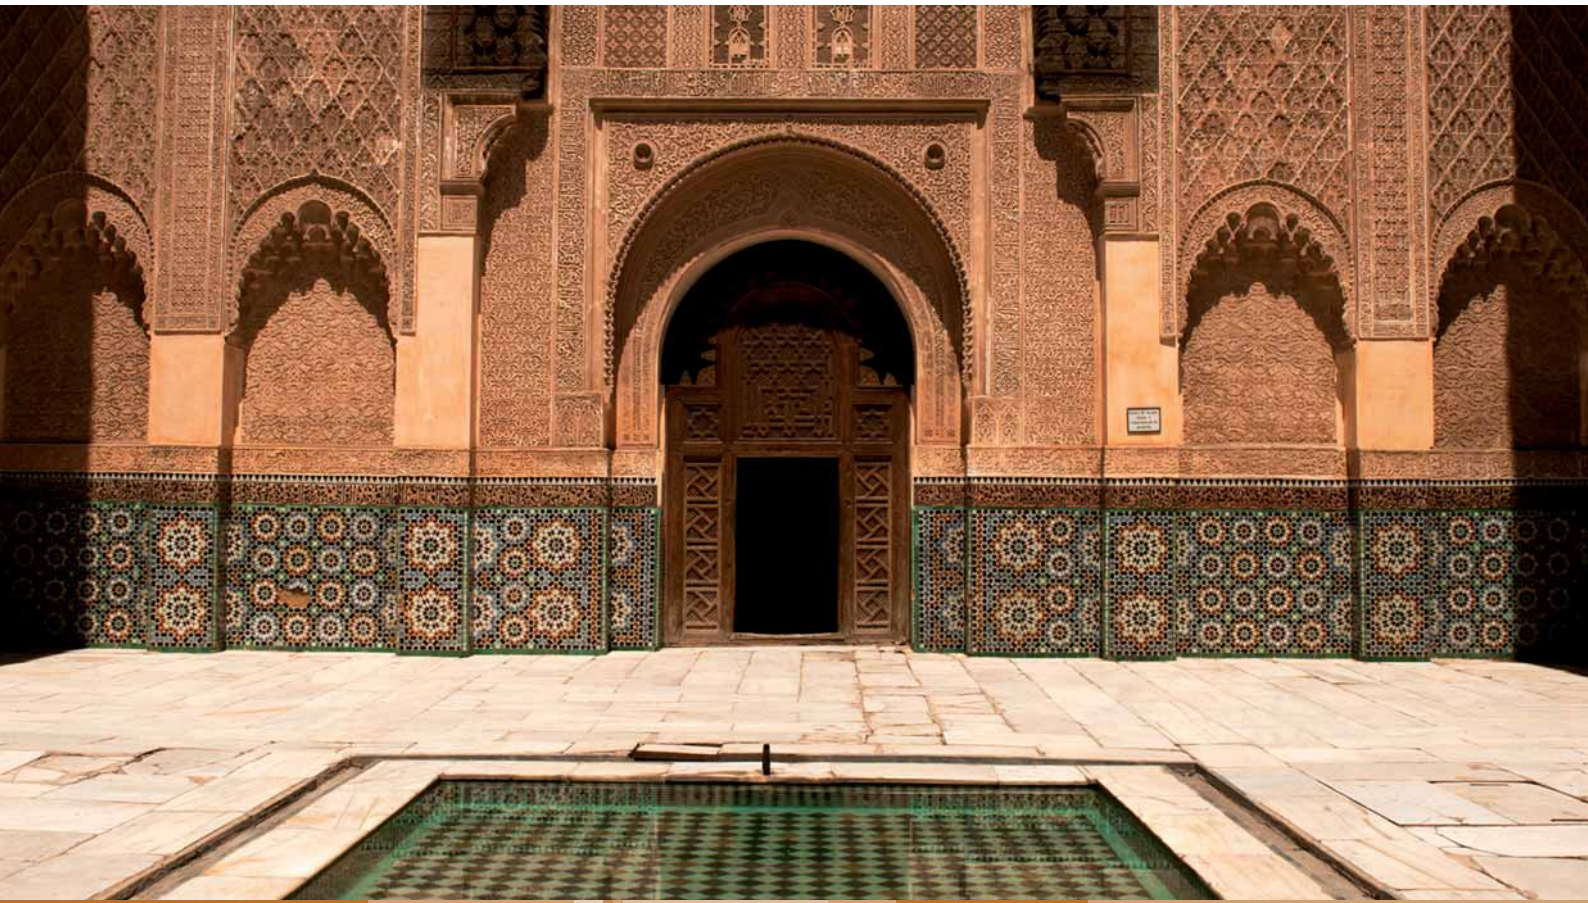

DJEMAA EL FNA SQUARE

Located in the heart of the Medina, Djemaa el Fna Square is the geographical, cultural and social center of Marrakech. It is dominated by the minaret of the Koutoubia mosque. This legendary site attracts millions of visitors who come attend the shows run by the famous snake charmers, storytellers, monkey trainers, popular actors, musicians and other artists... Djemaa el Fna was recognized and declared Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO in 2001.

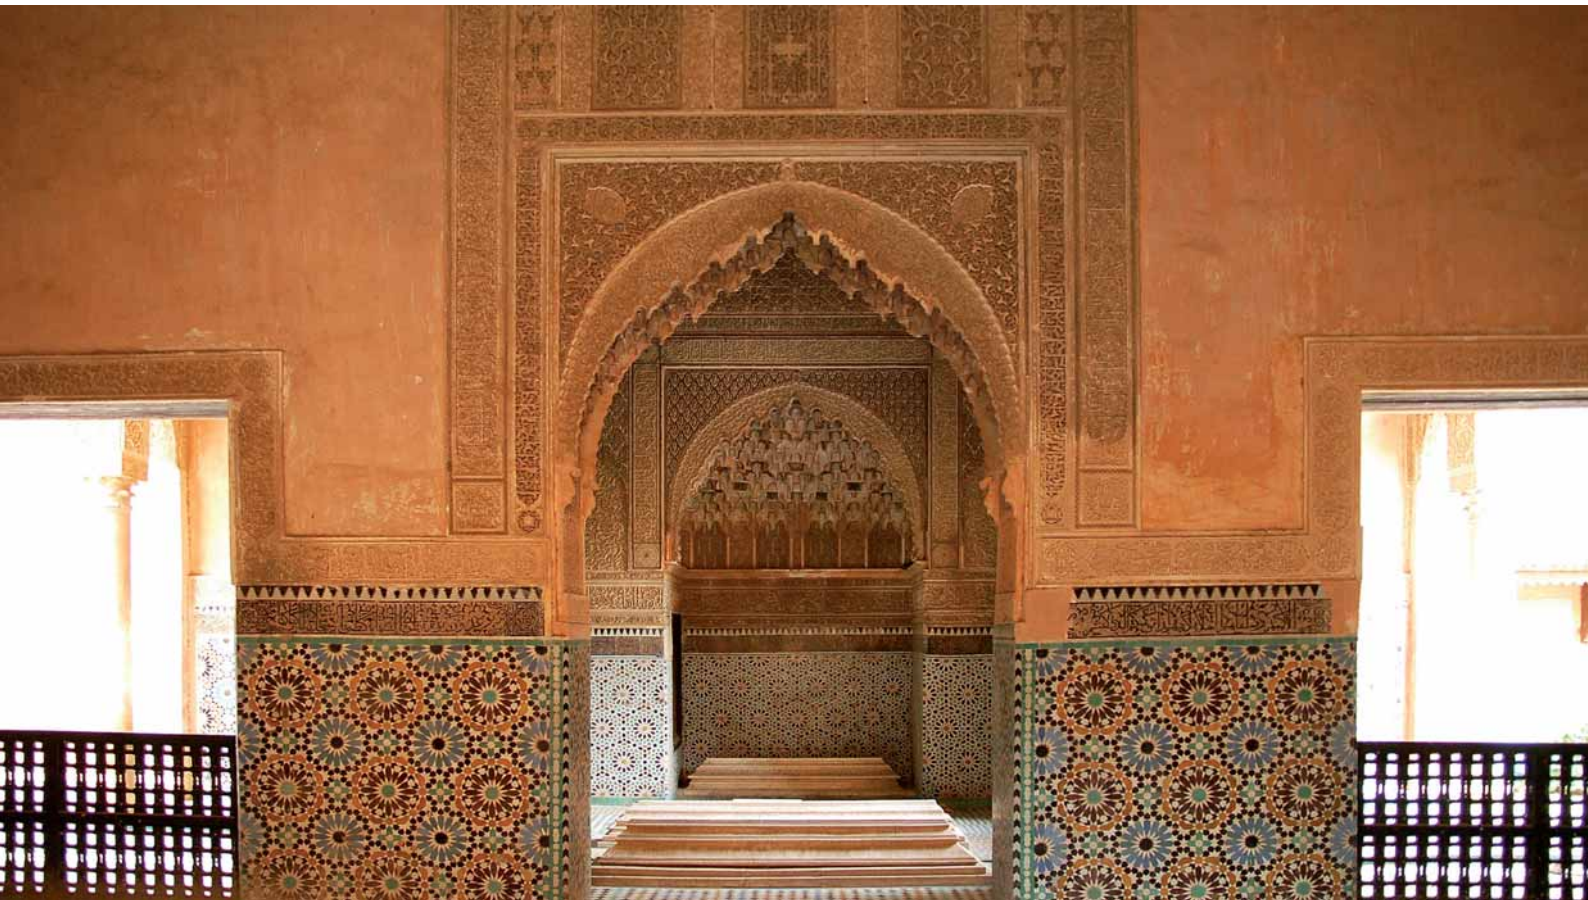

KOUTOUBIA MOSQUE

This religious building built in the twelfth century is representative of the architectural art of the Almohads. Its name comes from the fact that it was located in the souk of the merchants of manuscripts. Built in 1158, the Koutoubia mosque, which is 77m high up, still, dominates the city today and this is one of the largest mosques in Africa.

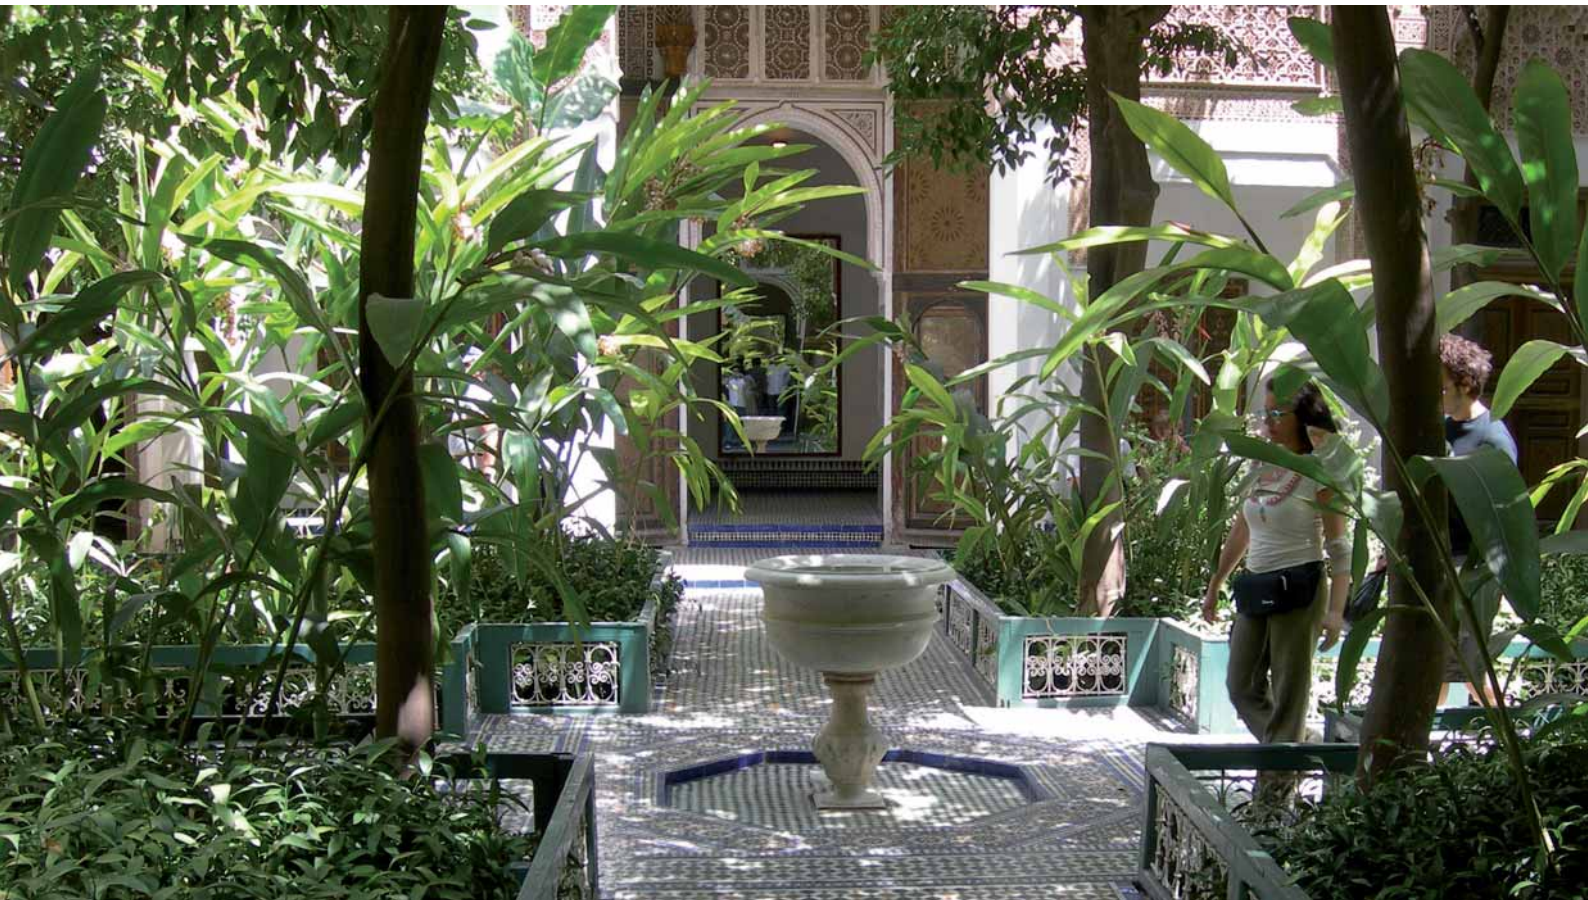

MADRASSA BEN YOUSSEF

This Koranic school built in 1570 by the Saadian is a gem of Moorish architecture . The name Ben Youssef comes from the Almoravid sultan Ali Ben Youssef. Madrasa was during more than four centuries a shelter for students thirst for knowledge in various sciences, especially theology. It had 132 rooms for non- students from Marrakech and could accommodate up to 900 students.

TOMBS SAADIENS

The mausoleum houses the body of a sixty Saadian , including Al - Mansour, his successors and his family.
This mausoleum is a fine example of Moorish decorative art. They were not discovered until 1917 .

EL BAHIA PALACE

The Bahia Palace, located in the Medina, is a masterpiece of Moroccan architecture which dates back to the late nineteenth century. Like most Arab-Andalusian palaces, it contains beautiful gardens and lovely patios, and has 150 lavishly decorated rooms.

MAJORELLE GARDEN

The Majorelle Garden is a botanical garden of the French painter Jacques Majorelle (1886-1962) established in 1931 and owned by Pierre Bergé since 1980. After Yves Saint Laurent passed away in 2008, his ashes were scattered in the garden. Majorelle Garden is home to the Berber museum where the personal collection of Pierre Bergé and Yves Saint Laurent is presented to the public.

MENARA GARDENS

Fitted under the Almohad dynasty, the Menara garden is a large garden filled with olive trees. It is a very peaceful place, away from the bustle of the city. At the heart of the garden, a large pool at the base of a lodge serves as a reservoir of water to irrigate crops. It is therefore an ideal place for walks.

THE SOUKS OF THE MEDINA

Trades are grouped by category ... All this divergent crowd in this vast labyrinth is a shocking although exciting experience ... Ideal for business deals or to bargain or simply to be there and watch.

The souks lead to the famous Djemaa el Fna Square which comes alive at dusk ... with musicians, storytellers, snake charmers and monkeys, fortune-tellers, experiences with henna designs on hands and feet ...
